

Theme: Don't let the Enemy have a seat at the Table.

Psalms 23:5

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Review:

1. This Psalm reflects the provision and benefits of being invited to the Table of the Lord. (Personal).
2. This table is spread in the "presence of your enemies".
3. The Enemy is not invited to sit at the table.

Indications that the Enemy has taken a place at the table.

Lessons from the 12 Spies
(Numbers 13-14)

Numbers 13:27-29

27 And they told him, and said, We came unto the land whither thou sentest us, and surely it floweth with milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it. 28 Nevertheless the people be strong that dwell in the land, and the cities are walled, and very great: and moreover we saw the children of Anak there.

Numbers 13:30

30 Then Caleb quieted the people before Moses, and said, "Let us go up at once and take possession, for we are well able to overcome it."

Numbers 13:31-32 NKJV

31 But the men who had gone up with him said, "We are not able to go up against the people, for they are stronger than we." ... "The land through which we have gone as spies is a land that devours its inhabitants, and all the people whom we saw in it are men of great stature. 33 There we saw the giants (the descendants of Anak came from the giants); and we were like grasshoppers in our own sight, and so we were in their sight."

Underline the lies, exaggerations.

Numbers 14:7-9 Caleb and Joshua

The land we passed through to spy out is an exceedingly good land. 8 If the Lord delights in us, then He will bring us into this land and give it to us, 'a land which flows with milk and honey.' 9 Only do not rebel against the Lord, nor fear the people of the land, for they are our bread; their protection has departed from them, and the Lord is with us. Do not fear them. NKJV
